

Lecture 28.01.2020

Federal Period

- Stuart's painting of Washington fits what the Americans expected of their politicians at the time and thus it became the most popular one of the many that were made
- reading stuff from e-course from the writings from the last week
- Thomas Jefferson as a great politician and statesman, but also an architect
- he designed a building at the university of Virginia and his own house among other things
-

Romantic Period